

Investor Education @your library®

Free seminar helps consumers make smart financial and investment decisions

INVESTOR EDUCATION
@your library®

Saturday, October 27
1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
Main Library, 301 York St.

Investor Education @ your library® is a free seminar that educates the public about investing wisely and offers optional financial wellness counseling sessions to seminar participants. The seminar includes material provided by the Investor Protection Trust (IPT), U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, CPA's and the PBS Television series, "Moneytrack." Participants will each receive a copy of "5 Keys to Investing Success" from IPT and Kiplinger. The seminar is sponsored by the American Library Association and Investor Protection Trust. The seminar will be conducted by the Evelyn Brust Foundation and the KY Office of Financial Institutions.
